Jeff:

I just spoke with Bob. We got a copy of the ad from Bo Delp. I look forward to our call tomorrow afternoon.

Dennis -- I think ann or bob will be calling with explanation. If not, give me a call and I'll provide an update.

Did you see the northern dynasty ad in the washington post? Page a7.

Jeff:

I'm on the call in number for the pre call and no one else is. Can you re-confirm the call in number? Thanks.

Dennis

FYI.... Perfectly timed for this morning's meeting with John Shively?
